FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

It Was Absolutely the Dullest Day of the Year.

FLATTER THAN A MIDSUMMER MARKET

Disquieting Rumors from London, but No Orders from That Centre.

The above was a very fair description of what was felt and said to-day by brokers and traders.

But what did they do? Well, virtually nothing. Think of it-only 57,000 shares of all listed stocks. A pretty day's business for an institution with 1,100 members who have twice that number of partners and thrice that number of clerks, and with no end of expensive offices up town and down town

But the actual business done didn't amount to a fourth of even that beggarly total, the other threefourths representing merely the flippings and tossings and scalpings of a handful of professional

Araders on the floor of the Exchange.

Although neither was dealt in to the extent of 7,000 shares, St. Paul and Lackawanna were yet the down % and 1% respectively. Lake Shore declined % on trading in a few hundred shares and Delaware and Hudson fell 2 on even lighter trading.

Foreign houses did virtually nothing. The fortthere were rumors that a prominent house over there was embarrassed, but they obtained little much as a full point, but the general list is practically unchanged. Sugar and Cotton Oil Trust certificates dropped sharply on comparatively few

Sales at the Board amounted to 57,563 shares (silver bullion certificates not included), against 3,952 on Saturday and 61,006 on Friday. Following is a summary of to-day's market:-

8 to 10 points. Liverpool was 1 to 2 points higher, closing quiet and steady, with sales of 8,000 bales. In Manchoster yarns were in moderate domand and cloths were quiet. The receipts at Bombay for the half week onding quiet. The receipts at Bombay for the half week ending to-day were 35,000 bales, against the same quantity for the same time last year. In New Orleans there was a small decline early in the day, but this was recovered and an advance followed from 2 to 3 points, with sales of 30,100 bales. Here on the spot the marked was quiet and unchanged, at 9c. for middling uplands, with sales of 0.7 bales for home consumption. The Southern spot markets were generally comptioned. The Southern spot markets were generally office. Gainston was only and Memphis declined 1-10c. Great Britain. The receipts comprised 25,446 bales to Great Britain. The receipts were provided and 12,702 this day last year. Thus far this week 47,108 bales, against 60,286 thus for last week. Options cleaded for after sales of 91,100 bales.

same time last week. To-day the arrivals at the interior towns were 4,510 bales—meaning Augusta, Memphis and St. Louis—against 1,681 bales this day last year. At these prices, however, after a long and aimost interupted decline the bears occasionally show nervouses, and there was enough covering to-day to cause a fair advance. The experts are liberal and are spoken of in Wall street as one of the agencies which may provent any large shipments of gold in the near future. I hear that Mr. Museshalmer was a large buyer to-day and that Lehman Brothers were also do with putting the market up. Room operators were covering. The selling was scattered and without features of special interest. This shows the crop movement:—

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

WHEAT A PRACTION HIGHER-A SLIGHT GAIN IN CORN-A BAD BREAK IN PROVISIONS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE HERALD.] CHICAGO. Feb. 24, 1891.—Wheat moved up a little to-day. May opened at 96c., sold off to 95%c., and after selling at May opened at 960, sold off to 95%e, and after selling at 96%e, closed at 96%d. Corn was strong after a momentary weak spot near the start and closed with a gain, of 56c. Provisions were unable to withstand the continued heavy receipts of hore and broke badly.

The news which first came to hand was not of a nature to stimulate good buying, and the weather was mild, with rains over the greater part of the winter wheat section. The early cables were generally firm. Northwestern receipts were very heavy. The prediction of another cold wave falled for a time to impress the crew'd which was still laboring under the effect produced by the fallure of a former announcement of the same kind. It had its effect later.

The corn wheat market. The weak faciling apparent for a few moments on that account seen gave place to an independent strength. May opened at 34%e, and sold to 55%ec, closing firm at 55%e.

There was only one cide to the provision deal—it was weak from start to finish. The stocky of provisions continues to grow. There can be but one outcome from such a state of affairs. It is being gradually worked out in the direction of still lower prices. May pork opened at $8.70, and after selling at $8.00 closed at $9.63. Lard went from $0.82% to 85.77% and closed there, while ribs sold throughout at $4.50.
